Two additional cardinals will be created in the United States by Pope Pius, according to Wm. J. Onahan, of Chicago, who has just returned from Rome.

War between Turkey and Bulgaria is believed to be imminent, though neither country is expected soon to make a formal declaration. Charges of cruelty are made against Turkish troops sent to Uskub. In case the United States squadron sent to Beirut on account of the attempted assassination of Vice Consul Magelssen finds it quiet there, it will probably proceed to some other port.

Thirty-six jurors, after hearing the evidence, have pronounced Caleb Powers guilty. Two Judges have sat in his case. The only change this time is a verdict of death instead of life imprisonment. The experiment of arguing his own case may have had nothing to do with the verdict, but at all events it failed of the intended effect. Naturally, Mr. Powers wants a reversal, but whether he will be able to show legal cause why he should have one remains to be seen.—Courier-Journal.

Among those thirty-six jurors were Republicans, anti-Goebel Democrats, bolters, and regular Democrats. They all agreed that Powers is guilty as charged.

The Cincinnati Times-Star, a brazen organ of assassination, contained the meanest, most outrageous collection of false assertions in recent years that ever appeared in a newspaper. It was in reference to the Powers verdict. As a result, Arthur Goebel, brother of the assassinated Governor, sends the following offer to that paper: "I hereby offer you $500 to publish word for word in the Times-Star the evidence given on both sides in the Caleb Powers' trial, so that your readers may judge for themselves by the entire evidence whether your statements be true. I will furnish you on request the official stenographer's complete transcripts. Five hundred dollars will not defray the expenses of printing the evidence, yet it is much more than the cost of printing the evidence to you that your readers should believe your editorial statements true. If you accept the above proposition I shall add $100 for your publishing in connection with the evidence in the Caleb Powers' case the testimony of ex-Gov. William Bradley, of Kentucky, in the case, the cost of printing which will not exceed $10. Very respectfully, ARTHUR GOEBEL."

At a deliberation of a little more than 4 hours the jury in the case against Caleb Powers, as a conspirator in the assassination of Gov. Goebel, brought in a verdict of guilty and a sentence of death. Special Judge Robbins fixed the date for the hanging at Nov. 25th. An appeal was granted and the defense was given until the eighth day of the October term of the Scott Circuit Court to file a bill of exceptions.

The death sentence was a surprise to many people because Jim Howard got off with a life sentence. But this jury was not trying Howard and the action of the jury in his case, of course, had nothing to do with the Powers trial. Howard escaped a similar sentence only by the dereliction of one or two jurymen.

Judge Davis, of Johnson, was here Monday. J. C. McCarthy is here. Lee Davis, from Warfield, was here over Sunday. Willie Ward has purchased Geo. Field's property on North side and will move there soon. We are sorry to say that a number of the boys were boozey Sunday, an unusual thing for Eden. The United Baptist Association will be held 10th to 13th near this place. The 4th Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held here 12 to 13th of September. Dr. J. M. Johnson's office is now in room just over J. L. Kirk's store. The Presbyterians are holding a series of meetings at the court house. Dr. Humble, is doing the preaching. Mrs. Wash Ward has been feeble for a number of months, and allow me to speak a few words in honor of her son Grover, who has waited on her patiently all the time. He told me in a conversation recently that he never slept more than 3 hours any night and some times less. Is that not an exceptional case of self sacrifice?

I see that on Sept. 22nd you have a fight in your town on the whisky question. That is one question that you will never realize the importance of vigorously fighting until you experience open saloons in your town. Some men will say it is better because they will have it shipped any way. Father, can't you see that your boys who have 10 cents can buy a drink where they would perhaps never taste it otherwise. In my home town, which is near the size of your town, they have not had licensed saloons for 56 years until a set of men who could be bribed came into office and all of the citizens of that town can relate sad stories of that state of things. On more than one occasion of court over one hundred were locked in jail for drunkenness. All of this was done while more than three to one in the county were against its sale. So it will be if Louisville gives license. Men of honor and good reason, stand for your own interest! Save a number of boys from drunkard's graves. Look at the men that are in favor of it! Are there any law breakers against it? Xerxes.

There will be church at Newcomb the first Sunday night in Sept. by Rev. Jernins. John Wooten, who has been sick, is improving. W. M. Burton, of this place, returned from Cincinnati Tuesday after a few days' visit. Miss Mary Queen has been visiting her grandmother on Big Sandy. Mrs. Bettie Frazier, who has been sick, is better. Miss Gracie Clay, of Ironton, has been visiting Miss Ella O'Daniel. George Adkins called on friends here Sunday. Pete Lock, of Rove creek, was calling here Sunday. Ben O'Daniel and Isaac Wooten made a flying trip to W. Va., last week. Quite a number of our young folks attended Quarterly meeting at Seedick Sunday. French Harmon, Fred Jackson and Wort Savage were calling on friends in our neighborhood Sunday. Mrs. Sarah O'Daniel, who has been sick, is improving. Miss Ona O'Daniel attended church on Long Branch Sunday. Kinmer Harmon made a flying trip to Long Branch Sunday. Chums.

PATRICK.
"Hot times, dry weather and plenty of it" seems to be the war-cry of the day.

Carl Hunt, a Berea student and extension worker, has been paying a visit to his sister, Mrs. John R. Preston. Also making business calls in the interest of the college for a week or so. We were glad to have Carl with us again. He is a bright, energetic young man and an efficient worker.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Preston paid a visit to their sick sister, Ethel Atkinson, of Old Peach Orchard, Saturday and Sunday. She is very low with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Ella Rice and daughter, Mabel, of Paintsville, are guests of her sister, Mrs. Jas. W. Preston, of Old Peach Orchard.

Several of the folks of this place attended the funeral of Aunt Katie Brown Sunday. Aunt Katie was widely known as the oldest woman of the county at her death, and her relatives can be counted by the score.

Married, on the 26 inst., Mr. Robbie L. Atkinson to Miss Ethel M. Preston. Rev. West preached his last sermon for his conference year at Borders Chapel Sunday.

We esteem him very highly as an earnest worker for the upbuilding of a moral standard and the salvation of souls.

N. A. Borders & Son are sawing a fine lot of lumber for McD. Preston. Joe B. Preston, the supt. of roads in this precinct, is hustling the boys up and making us some decent roads.

Hurrah for Joe. He is getting work out of some of the boys that never did work on the road before. Ulysses Burgess and sister visited at Borders Chapel Sunday. Our school at Preston Gap is again progressing nicely under Miss Gunnell's tutelage.

People of this place were considerably frightened Sunday afternoon by the mighty roar of trampling feet and cloud of dust but found it to be only Buster and Duke taking a ride, and that they had a nice time is evident from the smile on their faces. Look out, Buster, Henry might do something desperate.

We were very much interested in the glowing description of the Yellowstone Park. Give us some more.

Mad Anthony.

PIKEVILLE.

We are all in mourning here because of the death of Charles F. Mays, who died of typhoid fever. Mr. Mays was undertaker here and understood the art of embalming as only experts understand it. He was a successful carpenter and builder by trade. He was spoken of as the "ideal husband and father." Mr. Mays was an Odd Fellow and Mason. Both orders took part in the ceremonies of his burial. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. F. Tyree, of the M. E. Church South, of which church Mr. Mays was a consistent member.

R. G. Walker, who has been sick for nearly two months, is getting better. Rev. Jas. F. Record and Miss Alice Bell are still on the sick list. The Pike county teachers' institute closed last Friday. Taken all in all it was a very successful week's work.

We are very much interested in the description of the Yellowstone National Park, which is being written by "M. F. C."

Allan Quatermain.

Louis, Ky., July 20.
Your correspondent arrived in the little town of Prestonsburg on July 20 on our way home from a trip to Pikeville and other points up the Big Sandy. We found Prestonsburg to be a nice town, with about 600 inhabitants, a beautiful village nestled and almost surrounded by lofty mountains that bathe their summits in the hazy atmosphere. As the sun in all its splendor and gentleness rises in the eastern horizon, unveils itself and darts its golden rays through the misty fog that rises from the beautiful, sparkling river that carries a wave upon its glassy bosom and bids welcome to all who may be traveling over the dusty roads, casting a shadow here and there and arousing the bee in the beautiful flowers that decorate the yards of so many people of this beautiful town, makes one feel that he is yet among God's people. When we looked into the many happy faces of these people we could readily see that most of them were natives of that country—born and reared on the banks of the Big Sandy river, which has its origin among the tall pines of the Cumberland.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Mrs. C. Spradlin, mother of Jim H. and Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick, died at Prestonsburg last week.

Mrs. Chas. Wallace was killed by a train at Ashland Wednesday. She leaves a husband and one child.

The body of J. C. French, who was murdered in a box car at Paint Creek, W. Va., was buried at Zella this county.

The Democrats of Floyd county nominated A. L. Martin for Circuit Court Monday. A Republican candidate will be nominated.

Edward Wireman was shot and instantly killed by Wm. Stacy, on the edge of Knott county, near the Breathitt county line, last week.

Miss Hattie Milton Jones, who directed the "Old Maids' Convention" here last night, will teach a private school at Louisa beginning Sept. 4th.—Greenup Gazette.

We learn of the death of the wife of Thos. Gentry of Bloomington, which occurred August 26. The wife of Wallace May was adjudged insane last week in Magoffin county.

D. D. Eastham has sold his property, corner of Buena Vista and Chestnut streets, to Wm. Ferguson, our accommodating express agent. He will move his family some time next month.—Cattlettsburg Items.

Hazard, Ky., Aug. 29.—Lightning struck the court house and killed John J. Baker, standing in the doorway, and stunned six other men in the building. The court house was fired and practically consumed.

Miss Lillian Stafford died at Cattlettsburg last Monday of typhoid fever. She was the oldest daughter of Frank Stafford, and was deputy postmaster at Cattlettsburg. She was a pretty and popular young lady.

Rev. J. R. Nelson, the efficient pastor of the M. E. Church South, at Paintsville, will enter a Tennessee school at the close of this year's work. This is causing much regret at Paintsville, as he is a very popular minister.

Mrs. W. B. Allen died at her home at White Oak, Morgan county, after a prolonged illness. She was fifty-two years old. Her first husband was the late Congressman W. B. Taubee. She was a daughter of Mr. Oney, living on White Oak.

Dr. Jona Swelnam, of Whitehouse brought his son, who was shot about three years ago, to this city for examination. Dr. Bartram made an X-ray examination and succeeded in locating the bullet, which will be removed later.—Ashland Independent.

Mr. J. J. Johnson, the head of the abstracting department of the Northern Coal & Coke Company, has arrived in town and opened an office. He is assisted by D. W. Gardner, Charles Atkinson and John F. Prater, of Salsersville, efficient abstractors.—Salsersville News.

The Paintsville Herald says: A drunken crowd of toughs, in the absence of something else to do, fired a number of shots into John C. C. Mayo's office Sunday night. The glass panels in the front door were literally shot out and a couple of panes of glass in a rear window were demolished. A picture of Mr. Mayo's son hanging on the wall was pierced by a bullet.

Thursday Sam Copley, of the firm of Crum Preston & Co., who has been at his home at Eden, for some time passed through this place on his way to Cincinnati, to have his eyes treated by a specialist. He is almost totally blind, being only able to distinguish light. This trouble has been coming on for some time and seems to be caused by a scum growing over the sight.—Cattlettsburg Press.

Typhoid fever is still raging in Paintsville. Jay Sublett is very sick with the disease. The Paintsville Herald says Kent Akers and wife are slowly improving. Paul Brown is some better. J. L. Patterson is still confined to his bed, but is some better. Mrs. L. Preston is on the sick list. Alfonso Spradlin, Clyde Butler, Henry

CONTRACTOR SKIPS OUT.

Over Page, a sub-contractor on the N. & W. railroad a few miles north here moved off all his movable property a few days ago and left behind "holding the bag" for about $20,000. His work was from the creek to Upper Stone. 17 horses and mules were captured near Buchanan, Dixon, Moore & Co. had sold Page some horses and they secured themselves by capturing three mules and a horse. John Jeems is caught for $40 on a check which he had held for some time.

Huntington wholesale merchants, the Kenova bank, and his employees are the greatest sufferers from this piece of rascality. Before leaving, Page took $4,600 from the Kenova Bank, overdrawing his account considerably. His home was formerly at Roanoke, Va. It is reported that the heaviest creditors will take up the uncompleted contract and finish it. By this means they hope to come out all right.

Sept. 11th

is The Date of the Big Lot Sale at Louisville.

Next Friday is the date on which the opportunity of investing in desirable lots in Louisville will be offered to the public. A considerable number of buyers from the outside will be present.

Investment in these lots will prove profitable. The steady growth of the town, the bright prospects for the future and the excellent location of this property removes from the deal all chance of loss and makes the possibility of gain very great.

These sales help the town in general and the price of other property. New people and outside money are brought in, population and taxable property increased, and a better basis of prices fixed for lots sold hereafter.

GEORGES CREEK.

On last Sunday evening while our people were gathering in for Sunday School, a crowd of Charley fellows who had been to Lowmansville to church on horseback came very near running over the entire crowd. One man was struck on the ankle by a horse's hoof. It was a dangerous proceeding and will be looked after when grand jury meets again.

Charley and Alex Williamson came up from Catlettsburg last week and returned Monday.

Charley Ross and wife of Hood, visited relatives here last week.

Chandler Bros. had the misfortune one night last week of getting the log carriage of their saw mill burned.

Revs. Fannin and Maynard preached an interesting sermon to a large congregation here Sunday. We doubt not the most comfortable and intelligent, a contradiction of truth, and a libel upon every subject with which it purports to deal. It has never been equaled in brazen effrontery since the republican convention of St. Louis. After he had been indicted for murder and ignominiously fled from the state for his patriotic and resolute course, the republican convention last July cheered vociferously the name of George Taylor whose movements in Indiana were a great drain upon the resources of the state.

They are good people their departure causes regret.

The Republican delegates of Boyd and Lawrence counties met at the court house in Louisville last Monday at one o'clock. It was called to order by C. F. Weaver, of Boyd. Jas. A. Abbott was elected chairman and B. F. Forgy secretary. The Lawrence county delegates retired to a private room for consultation. It was agreed that after the third ballot the hindmost candidate should be dropped at each succeeding ballot until a nomination was made.

Squire J. W. Perry withdrew before the balloting began. This left in the race Rev. J. S. Thompson, Rev. Albert Miller, Garfield Moore and D. J. Burchett. The Boyd county delegates were unopposed and divided their vote equally between all the candidates.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Moore 10; Burchett 14; Miller 9; Thompson 8. The next two were the same. Thompson was dropped on the fourth ballot and Miller on the fifth. The sixth ballot resulted: Burchett 24, Moore 20.

The nominee was not present being at his home in Mt. Sterling, Ky. He was notified by wire of his nomination.

YATESVILLE.

J. M. Riffe has made improvements on his place by the addition of new buildings &c. At this point on Blaine creek we have the deepest forest that is to be found in this section of the country, and on account of our natural scenery people visit here from "anywhere."

At this season of the year some of your citizens often visit the Spannum bridge, bringing with them their families and lunch equipments and spend, as they term it, one of the most pleasant days of their lives. Miss Fanny Thompson, daughter of ex-Judge Thompson, is teaching the school in the Morgan creek District and Landon E. Bradley is teaching the school here. These two people are undoubtedly the right teachers in the right places. Joe Fairchild, our blacksmith, received a painful cut on the hand last week by a kick from a mule he was shoeing. He will not be able to work in the shop for a few days, and it will be a great inconvenience to the lumber haulers and others on account of the demand for smithing. The wife of Thomas Short, of Morgan's creek, died last Monday, leaving a husband and several children, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. She was a good woman and well liked by all who knew her. Miss Eliza Burchett, of Busseyville, visited her sister, Mrs. Genoa Ham, and it was very pleasant reunion for them, it being the first time they had seen each other for 13 years. Country Greenhorn.

LAUREL HILL.

We had two good rains in this locality last week. It has been so dry all summer property has suffered for water. There are several on the sick list. Mrs. N. Williams is very sick. Her brother, Dr. L. Skaggs, of Red Bush, is waiting on her. D. H. Ferguson has symptoms of typhoid and is being treated by Dr. J. J. Gambill. Cora Barker has fever. Mrs. J. H. Estep is sick. Bert Collins and wife have returned from a visit to the latter's parents at Leon. James Segraves returned home Saturday, accompanied by Lonna H. Segraves, after a visit to relatives here. Services at Laurel Hill church last Sunday conducted by Revs. John and South Barker, father and son. Also, at the Henry Evans school house by Rev. Powell Ferguson. Mrs. A. M. Segraves was the guest of D. H. Ferguson Sunday. Mrs. F. B. Harrington will leave tomorrow for her home in New York, after having spent the summer here.

Mrs. R. S. Chaffin and daughter Miss Mollie have returned from a visit to relatives in Columbus and London, Ohio.

Mrs. Alice Rule and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pigg attended the funeral of Miss Lillian Stafford, at Catlettsburg Tuesday.

"Uncle Allen" Hatten, aged 85, who has been paralyzed in his lower limbs, rendering him helpless, for the last quarter of a century, and cared for by his nephews, nearly died last week. He was in the hands of Dr. J. J. Gambill, and is now recovering.

In addition to the excellent financial showing it has made, the present administration has done more to improve the public institutions of the state than any other administration has ever done. We have spent much more in the improvement of all the charitable institutions, the state colleges, the state school for colored people, the state and dumb institute, and the two penitentiaries. All of these institutions are in a better condition now than ever before. The two penitentiaries, instead of being a great drain upon the resources of the state, are now a great asset to the state.

They are good people their departure causes regret.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large tin, 50 cents at drug stores or by mail, Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren Street, New York.
